

Bruna Abdullah

Many of us are familiar with another hot looking super model making a name for herself in Bollywood and trying to be one of the top rated actresses of Bollywood. Yes we are talking about Bruna Abdullah who is travelling on the path of success to become a super star.

A Little about Bruna Abdullah:

Now let us tell you a little about Bruna Abdullah, her background and biography.

Bruna Abdullah is Brazilian model, Arab Brazilian model to be exact as her father is a Brazilian national but her mother is an Arab. Bruna Abdullah having dual features of both Arab and Brazil became a deadly combo and she started her career at a tender age sweet 16.

Career Details:

Bruna Abdullah started her career at the age of 16 as a model and grabbing some national and international modeling projects. From then Bruna Abdullah became a prominent name in the world of fashion both nationally and internationally.

Bruna Abdullah did a very bold item song in her very first Bollywood venture 'Cash' which was a film directed by 'Anubhav Sinha.' The item song 'Rehem Kare' was Bruna Abdullah first step into Bollywood which opened the doors of many other.

Despite her famous item song in the movie Cash which was released in 2007, Bruna Abdullah became more famous after becoming a VJ for Channel V India. Hosting her own show, Bruna Abdullah made her mark and made herself well known with the show India's Hottest and becoming equally famous as VJ Mia.

Along with her shows, Bruna Abdullah appeared in commercials for many brands like Colgate Max Fresh, also appeared in commercial for Reebok alongside MS Dhoni, Indisind Bank alongside Ranvir Shorey and many other.

These are not the only projects of Bruna Abdullah. In 2009 she appeared in the second season of Fear Factor: Khatron Kay Khiladi hosted by Akshay Kumar in which she was eliminated on her third day in the show. But this was not the end of the daring Bruna Abdullah who made a comeback in the show with a wildcard entry and performed some shocking and dangerous stunts and surprised her viewers by showing her daring side of the life. Even Akshay Kumar himself praised Bruna Abdullah for daring attempts in the show.

In 2010 Bruna Abdullah got her second Bollywood project in the famous I Hate Luv Storys and played the role of Gisselle through which she managed to grab some more attention of the viewers for herself.

In 2011 she did another item number in the famous film Desi Boyz on the song Subha Hone Na De and in 2012 she managed to grab a role of Sameera in the film Billa II.

Bruna Abdullah is close friend of everyone's heartthrob Katrina Kaif and Salman Khan. It was heard that for some time she was also associated with Salman Khan, it was assumed that Salman Khan will help her in grabbing a permanent place in bollywood as an actress however it does not seem like this now and she is back to her modeling. Bruna Abdullah also appeared on the covers of many national and international magazines including Maxim and did photo shoots for many other renowned fashion magazines.

Bruna Abdullah career in Bollywood is starting to make a mark as she is currently working on two upcoming projects by the name of Himmatwala and Grand Masti which are scheduled for release in 2013.

Another something interesting I would like to for Bruna Abdullah fans out there that she is fan of Madhubala's dancing and has a passion for dancing as well. Currently she is learning Kathak Dancing to gain more skills in the art of dancing.

