

ABCD 2 Rocks Box Office, Scores Biggest Opening Weekend of 2015

Remo D'Souza's dance drama Any Body Can Dance 2 (ABCD 2) has exploded off the starting block to record this year's highest opening weekend collections. Critics were mostly left cold by the dance film but cine-goers flocked to buy tickets and business has currently been totaled up at over Rs 45 crores, almost halfway to the magic number of 100 crores and higher than the takings of Tanu Weds Manu Returns and Piku in their first weekends.

[contentblock id=1 img=adsense.png]

Trade analyst Taran Adarsh wrote on Twitter:

*#ABCD2 records the HIGHEST OPENING WEEKEND of 2015 [so far]. First Hindi film to cross ₹ 45 cr mark [Fri-Sun] in 2015. India biz.*

– taran adarsh (@taran_adarsh) June 22, 2015

[contentblock id=2 img=adsense.png]

#ABCD2 continues the upward trend on Day 3. Fri 14.30 cr, Sat 14.54 cr, Sun 17.51 cr. Total: ₹ 46.35 cr. India biz. FABULOUS!

– taran adarsh (@taran_adarsh) June 22, 2015

HIGHEST OPENING WEEKEND 2015 – #ABCD2 TOPS Read: <http://t.co/EmaURV4iUM>

– taran adarsh (@taran_adarsh) June 22, 2015

Meanwhile, the Mohit Suri-directed Hamari Adhuri Kahani, starring Vidya Balan and Emraan Hashmi, has found little love from audiences with the film earning a dismal Rs 30 crores in two weeks.

#HamariAdhuriKahani [Week 2] Fri 87 lacs, Sat 95 lacs, Sun 1.32 cr. Total: ₹ 30.26 cr. India biz.

[contentblock id=3 img=adsense.png]

– taran adarsh (@taran_adarsh) June 22, 2015

