

Sara Ali Khan Reminds Us Of A Younger Amrita Singh In Kedarnath First Look

After wrapping up the first schedule of Kedarnath in Uttarakhand, the cast and crew of the film are back in town. What's exciting is that the first look of Saif Ali Khan and Amrita Singh's daughter Sara is out! The photographs shared by the makers give us a glimpse of the debutante's character in the film. The actress looks breathtakingly beautiful as the daughter of a priest and is dressed in a light-hued salwar suit and her face bears minimum makeup. Looking at the photos it's quite easy to mistake the lovely lady as her mother Amrita Singh. It is only when we look at her intently do we realise that it is, in fact, Sara.

Take a look at these pictures and you'll know what we mean:

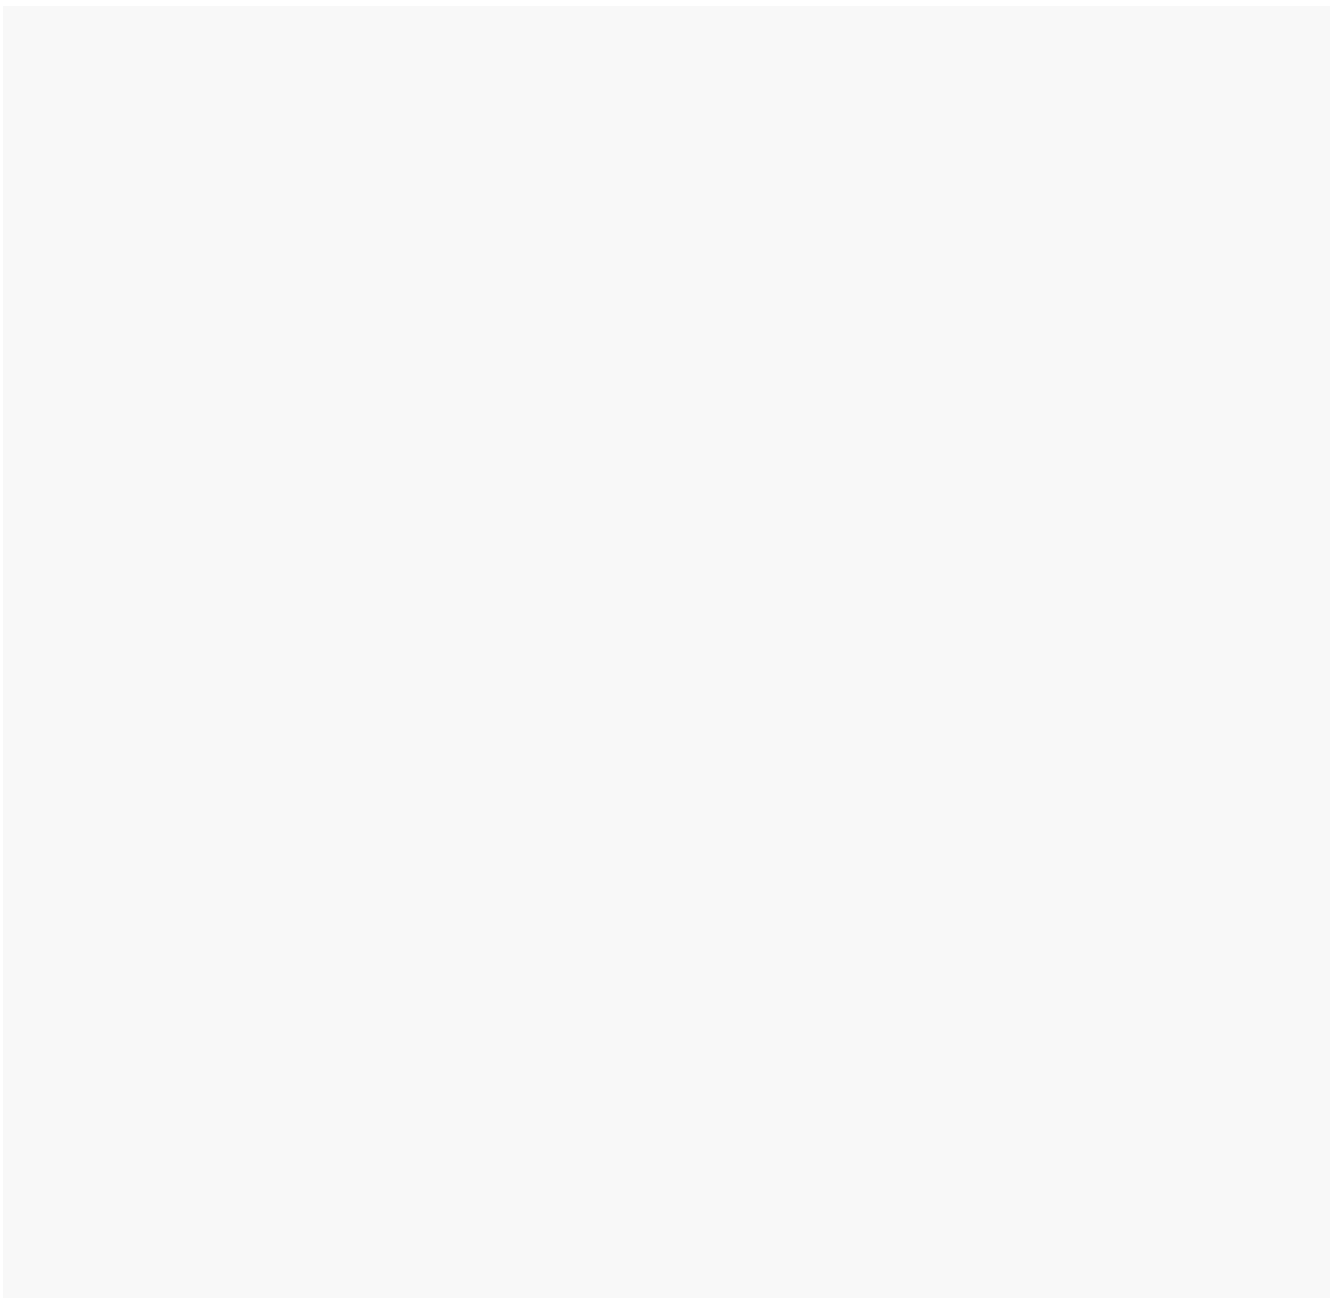

Now, doesn't she look beautiful?

This is the first promotional material that has been officially put out by Team *Kedarnath and we are loving it. The film also features Sushant Singh Rajput who will be playing the male lead in the movie. He and Sara will be romancing each other in this much-awaited film, with the actress playing the role of a tourist and the Raabta actor playing a guide. The team will soon begin with the second schedule of the Abhishek Kapoor film in the city of dreams itself.

On the team's return to the metropolitan city from Kedarnath, director Abhishek shared his experience of shooting in Uttarakhand and thanked the cast and the crew for their efforts. He said that it was nothing short of an expedition because of the difficult terrain and weather they had to face there. He accompanied this message by a happy picture of himself with Sushant and Sara.
