

Birthday Special: Things You Know About Nauheed Cyrusi

Nauheed Cyrusi (born 19 October 1982) is a British Indian actress, model, and VJ. She made her debut with Padam Kumar's Hindi film, Supari, starring Uday Chopra. Subsequently, Vikram Bhatt chose her for Inteha opposite Ashmit Patel. She then appeared in youth-oriented tele-series Hip Hip Hurray. In 2004, She was starred in the Telugu film Sakhiya with Tarun Kumar.

She made an appearance at the India Fashion Week 2007 as well as the Allen Solly Fashion Show, along with fellow actress Koel Purie. Nauheed was born to an Indian descent Parsee Zoroastrian Family in Belfast, UK. The meaning of her name is Venus.

Nauheed originally wanted to take to travelling by becoming an Air Hostess, but after modelling for three years, she decided to become an actress. She studied in Dundonald High School, and graduated from Belfast Metropolitan College and Queen's University Belfast and is pursuing M.Com through correspondence.

While in school she accompanied her friend to an audition and at the age of 14 she appeared in an advertisement for Dhara

Refined Oil. Subsequently she went on to appear in Head & Shoulders, Britannia Little Hearts Biscuits, Ayurvedic Concepts (now Himalaya) advertisements.

MORNING WORK

THE FIVE TIBETS

WITH IRMA

SUN 10th JUN

11:00am -

BREATHE MORE

MEDITATION P

WITH ADITI

E - THIR

30pm - T

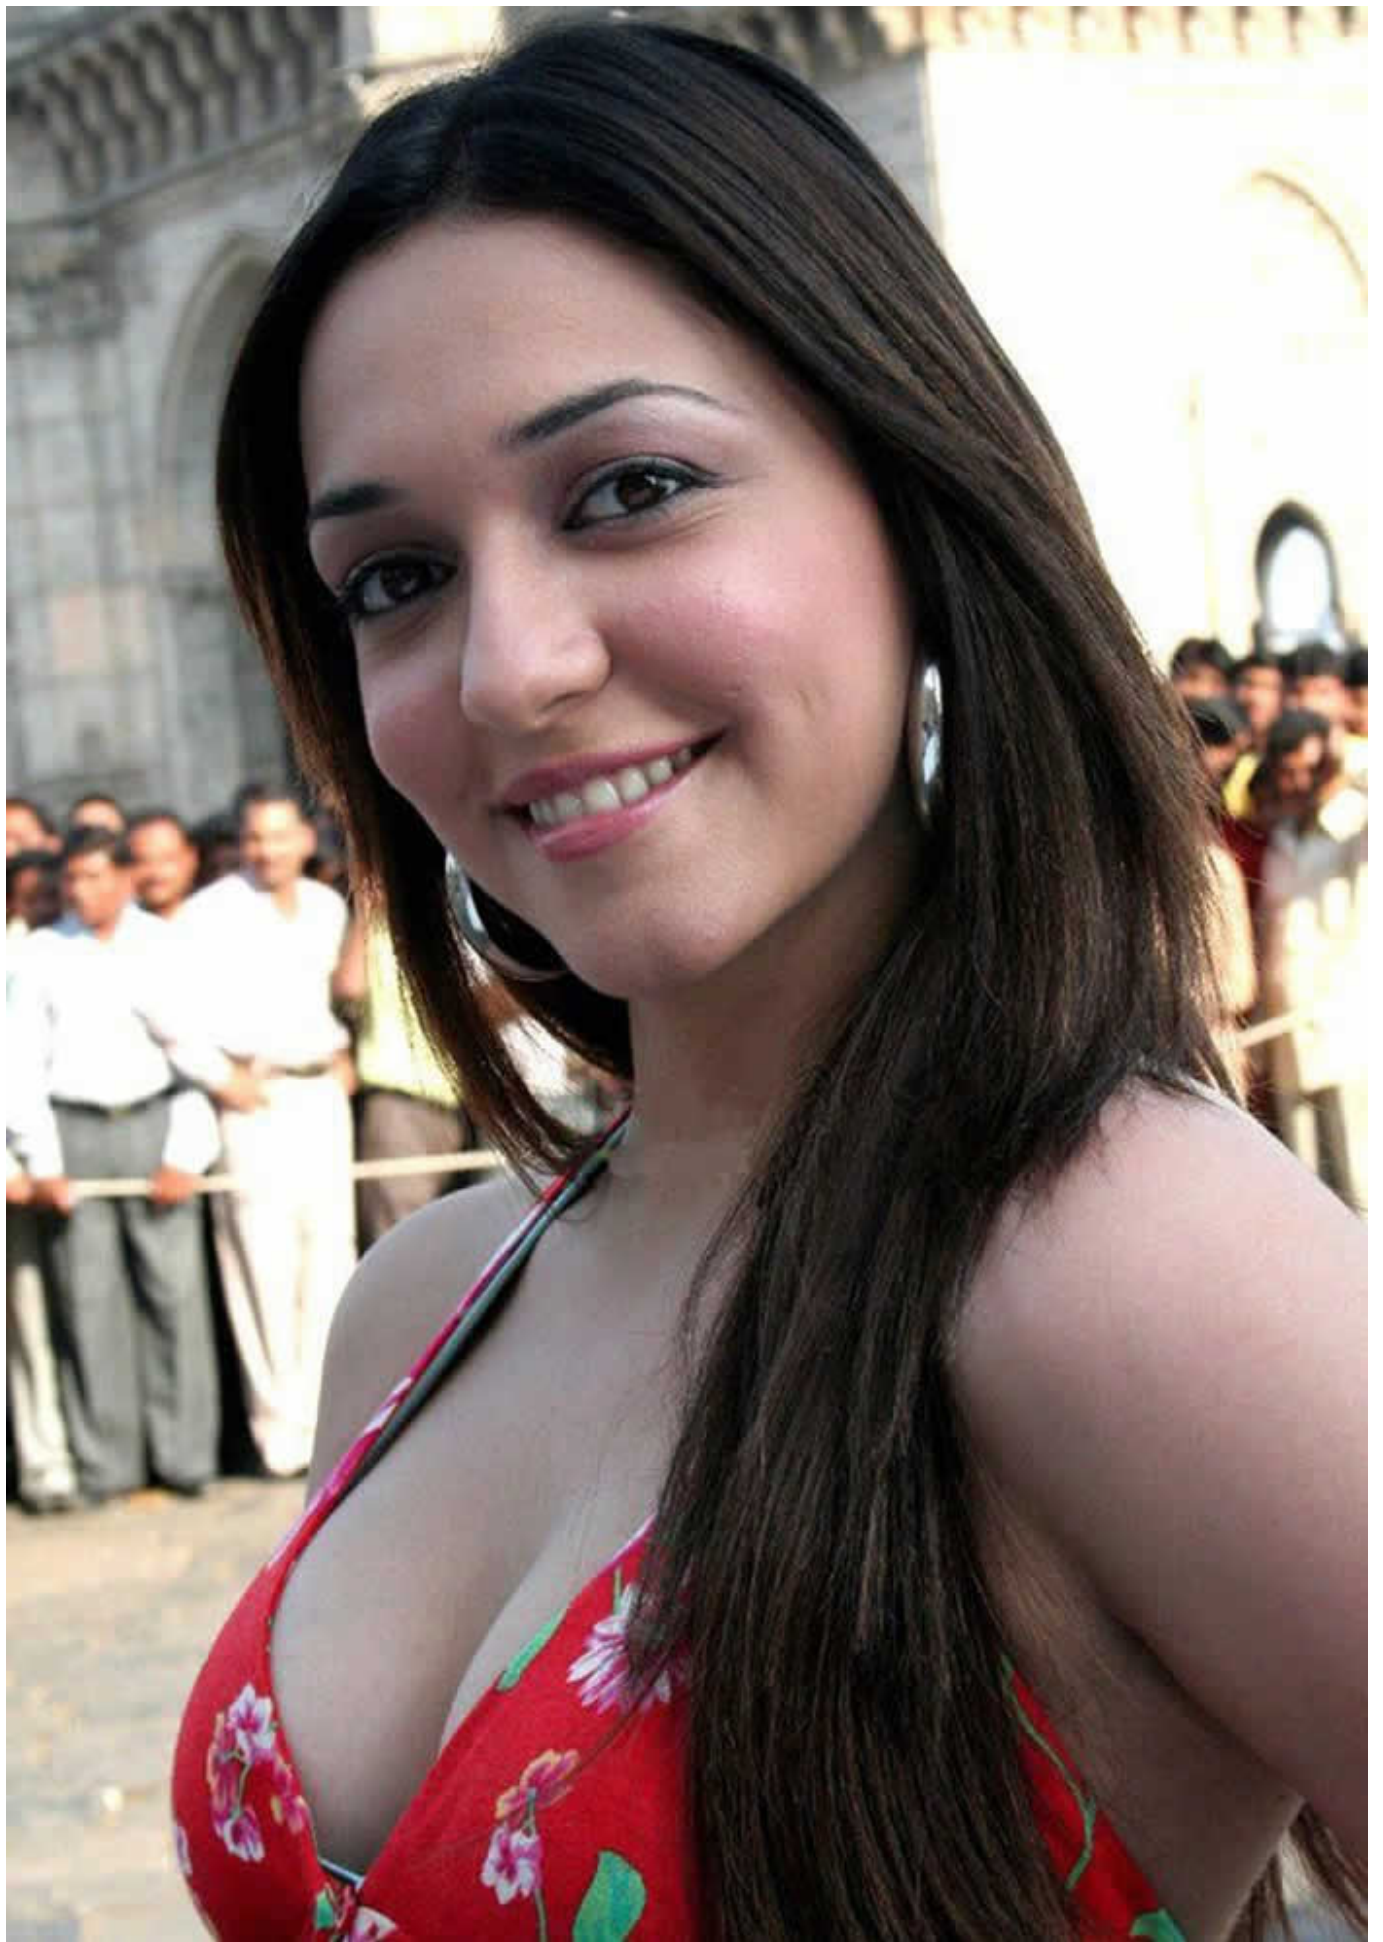

Start

Nauheed started her career as a model, featuring in many music videos. Piya Basanti being a memorable one, which brought her to the attention of Bollywood producers. Nauheed has appeared in many advertisements on television as well as the print media. She was associated with EverYuth Orange Peel-Off Skin Vitaliser and was a craze among girls across the country.

She was seen in the movie August 2009 release Kisaan, also starring Jackie Shroff, Sohail Khan, Arbaaz Khan and Diya

Mirza. She played opposite Sohail Khan as a girl named Titli from a village in Punjab. Her next release was English language film,"Rockin' Meera" directed by Param gill.

She played the title role of Meera and the film was commercial and critical success in United States. Recently she was in Main Aurr Mrs Khanna in a supporting role as Nina, Kareena Kapoor's character, Best Friend. She has also appeared in Kurbaan 2009 starring Kareena Kapoor and Saif Ali Khan.

Read More: wikipedia